

COVID-19 Plan

The Kentucky Fall Classic Horse Show COVID-19 Plan was developed based on the Governor's Healthy At Work initiative and following the rules and regulations of the Joint Leadership Council (JLC*) Covid-19 practices. Please view the information below for specific details related to the Kentucky Fall Classic Horse Show.

ACCESS TO COMPETITION

- Require temperature monitoring for officials, competition staff, volunteers, and service providers daily prior to entering the competition grounds
- The following individuals are not allowed to enter the competition grounds:
  1. Anyone exhibiting COVID-19 symptoms
  2. Anyone who has tested positive for COVID-19 within the last 10 days
  3. Anyone who has tested positive for COVID-19 outside of the last 10 days but is still symptomatic
  4. Anyone who has been in close contact with someone who has tested positive for COVID-19 within the last 14 days

ALLTECH ARENA

Adhere to guidance from the JLC and the Governor's Office.

- Judges will be required to wear masks.
- Large class sizes may be limited to enhance social distancing practices.
- No spectators will be allowed into Alltech Arena
- Number of people along the show ring will be limited and required to wear masks.
- Number of trainers in the areas around Alltech Arena, including the make-up ring and gate area, will be limited.
- Only riders/drivers, trainers and grooms will be allowed in the gate area.
- Showtimes will be spaced out to clear up congestion in the make-up ring areas.

HORSE SHOW OFFICE AND STABLING

- All common areas in the Horse Show Office will be wiped down routinely, multiple times throughout the day. In addition, cleaning supplies will be placed in the office for staff use.
- Adhere to guidance from the JLC, Governor's Healthy at Work Guidelines.
- Barns and stalls will be limited to two people per stall. Stalls will not be used for living quarters.
- Social engagements in the barns and stalls will be prohibited.
- Check-in times will be spaced to prevent congestion.
- Farriers and Veterinarians will be allowed in the show rings and barn areas.
- Online entries and class changes will be offered throughout the duration of the event to reduce Horse Show Office visits.
- Only riders/drivers, trainers and grooms will be allowed in the make-up area.
- Staff will be required to wear a face mask.

*The Joint Leadership Council, is comprised of members from the American Hackney Horse Society, American Morgan Horse Association, American Road Horse & Pony Association, American Saddlebred Horse Association, American Saddlebred Registry and the United Professional Horsemen's Association.

TRAINERS AND PARTICIPANTS

- A waiver must be signed by each participant that is located on website for the Kentucky Fall Classic Horse Show at www.kentuckyfallclassic.com
- Kentucky Fall Classic Horse Show will monitor temperatures of trainers and participants entering the show grounds and a wristband will be provided.
- All trainers and participants must wear wristbands when on the show grounds to ensure we are maintaining a spectator free show and abiding by KFCHS and state guidelines.
- In order to ensure appropriate social distancing, only trainers and grooms will be allowed in the make-up ring and at ring side.
- Trainers and participants should self-monitor their temperatures once daily prior to entering the show grounds. Show Officials may take the temperatures of any person randomly on the show grounds and such persons must comply or leave the show grounds.
- Check in will be done by appointment only and only one person per barn will be allowed in the show office at a time. You are encouraged to do your entries online to minimize time in the office. You may add/scratch classes via horse shows online.
- Trainers and/or participants must remain at least six feet (6) apart while in Horse Show Office/and in the hallway. This may result in staff/volunteers asking trainers or participants to come back at a later time or to move to a different area to decrease the opportunity for congregation and to ensure social distancing guidelines are enforced.
- All those who enter the Horse Show Office must wear a mask or cloth face covering.
- Participants are required to wear a facemask or cloth face covering when in a public setting, and when not mounted on a horse. Participants may choose to wear a facemask or cloth face covering when mounted on a horse and will not be disqualified or penalized for doing so while competing. Each barn must supply its own Personal Protective Equipment.
- Any person may be asked to provide identification or affiliation with participants and may be asked to leave the arena or warm-up ring.
- Grooms who are working as security for horses will be allowed in the barns overnight.
- Congregating in stable areas is not permitted. Parties and party areas in the stable areas are not permitted.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- No members of the general public are permitted on the show grounds. All persons on the show grounds are required to comply with social distancing guidelines. All persons on the show grounds may be asked to provide identification or affiliation with participants at any time and may be asked to leave.
